Re: Freedom of Information Act Request Relating to Fort Bragg Lumber Mill
Located at 90 West Redwood Avenue, Fort Bragg, California

To Whom it May Concern:

This letter modifies the request submitted on April 8, 2014. We hereby request copies of the following public records maintained or retained by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA"):

All records, including but not limited to, documents and photographs, relating to the regulation of air quality, water quality, storm water, sanitary sewer, hazardous waste, solid waste or any other environmental issue or condition at the Fort Bragg lumber mill located at 90 West Redwood Avenue, Fort Bragg, Mendocino County, California, or any portion thereof ("Site"), from 1885 to the present, including but not limited to:

- All Clean Air Act permits, authorities to construct, applications for permits, applications for authorities to construct, or other communications relating thereto;
- All records relating to Best Available Control Technology, Lowest Achievable Emission Rate, or other records describing control of air emissions;
- All notices of violation, notices to comply, or other document indicating noncompliance with air quality laws;

- All records relating to atmospheric emissions of dioxin, including but not limited to, calculations, estimates, comments;
- All records relating to scrubbers used to abate boiler emissions, including but not limited to, scrubber efficiency, disposal and/or removal of scrubbed material at the site;
- All records relating to urban wood waste as a fuel, including but not limited to, sampling protocols, emissions estimates, emission limits;
- All other records pertinent to the emission and control of air pollutants;
- All Clean Water Act permits, permit applications, or other communications relating thereto;
- All records relating to sampling of storm water, pond water, or any water discharge for hazardous substances and other pollutants;
- All records relating to the current and former storm water and sanitary sewer drainage system;
- All records relating to the storage and/or removal of hazardous waste and solid waste;
- All notices of violation, notices to comply, or other document indicating noncompliance with water quality laws;
- All penalty assessments, settlements, or other document indicating a penalty and/or settlement for noncompliance
- All complaints from the public;

In lieu of EPA copying the records, please let us know the earliest available date and time and we will review EPA's file(s) at your offices. Thank you for your assistance.

Very truly yours,
